

Digi Communications N.V. announces status update on the potential Digi Spain Telecom S.A.U. transaction

23 April 2026

The Company informs the market that it continues to explore strategic options in relation to its operations in Spain, which may involve an initial public offering of the shares of its subsidiary, Digi Spain Telecom S.A.U. (“Digi Spain”). During the exploratory discussions regarding a potential initial public offering investor response has been very positive, recognising Digi Spain’s growth prospects and the value of the strategy it is implementing in Spain.

Given the current market instability, such transaction is not imminent.

The Company and Digi Spain will continue to monitor developments in the global environment and capital markets to assess the possibility of a potential transaction.
