

Digi Communications N.V.

Announces the update of its 2022 Financial Calendar

28 July 2022

The Company informs its shareholders and investors of the update of its 2022 Financial Calendar, in particular regarding the date of publication of the updated Annual Report 2021 (with the Company's statutory consolidated and stand-alone financial statements prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") as adopted by the European Union ("EU") and Part 9 of book 2 of the Dutch civil code) and the date of holding the General Meeting of Shareholders approving such report.

The change in the 2022 Financial Calendar is due to the fact that the audit process of the Company has not been finalised in the initially estimated timeline despite the sustained efforts from both the Company's and the auditor's side, the delay being determined by the timeline of the appointment of the Company's auditor for 2021 and the corporate changes within the Group (i.e., the sale of the Company's Hungarian operations), which require the allotment of additional time.
